Had Trunk Full Of Money But Sought Alms

NEWARK, N. J.—An 80 year old woman, sent to the city alms house by charity workers, was refused admittance today when it was discovered that she had $5,000 of her own.

The woman, who had been living on charity for 15 years in a single attic room in a poor section of the city, admitted she had "some money" in an old trunk at the home of her sister. The trunk, which had not been opened for 20 years, was filled with bills and gold pieces.

There were $1,000 in bills and $2,000 worth of five dollar gold pieces, and bank books showing savings amounting to $2,000. Each of the gold pieces was wrapped in tissue paper.

Even Newspapers Banned On Sunday

BERWICK, PA.—Strict enforcement of Sabbath observance laws here is demanded of the police in an order by the Berwick council published today. Ordinance enacted so long ago that the provisions of many of them have been forgotten will be revived.

Under the order, soda fountains, ice cream parlors, newspaper stands will be directed by the police to remain closed on Sunday hereafter. Gasoline stations are included in the ban, and motorists whose supply runs out here will be compelled to remain until Monday unless some can be borrowed.

No Sunday newspapers will be permitted to be sold either on the streets or in stores, and drug stores may only fill prescriptions and dispense medicines.

Old Time Five Cent Cigars May Never Be Back

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The old time five cent cigar, once hailed by Vice President Marshall as the nation's crying need, in its return to normal, is gone forever, unless tariff and tax levies on tobacco drop, manufacturers and importers told the house tariff framers today.

The gloomy forecast emerged from a smoke-cigar smoke-thar rolled and edited about the ways and means committee room arising from samples brought by the tobacco men and promptly put to the test by the committee.

Witnesses asked for a reduction of the 25 percent ad valorem duty on Sumatra wrappers in order that cigar prices might go down "in keeping with the trend of times."

This Man's Head Breaks Kicking Mule's Leg

HUNTSVILLE, ALA.—The claim of Joseph Jones, of Merriam, to hospital attaches here that he had "some bean" was borne out today when his story that he had been kicked by a mule on the head and that as a result the animal was lying helpless with a broken leg, was investigated and found to be true.

Jones said his way was blocked by a stray mule and he made a threatening gesture to frighten it away. It refused to stampede, however, meeting the assault with a well directed kick to the brow. The mule's leg was broken in two places. It was pronounced a helpless cripple and shot. Jones will recover.

Wives, Mothers Want Law To Give Aid In Work

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Letters under Brooklyn date signed "Wives and Mothers of Industrial Workers" reached members of congress today asking for a law to require childless married women under 60 to do house work three days a week for mothers with children and also for an eight hour day for housewives.

"Congress should realize", it said, "that legislation should be less and less in favor of industrial workers and more and more to alleviate and improve the condition of the overworked, underpaid, dish washing housewife."

It added that sixty percent of the members of congress were paid more than they are worth.

Kills Her Husband; Thought Him Burglar

CLEVELAND, O.—Mrs. Maude Miller, 26, shot and killed her husband, Fred J. Miller, fraternal lodge organizer, in the vestibule of their home early this morning.

Mrs. Miller, who is being held for investigation, told the police she thought her husband was a burglar, various attempts having been made to enter their house.

Police say Mrs. Miller admitted quarreling with her husband last night about household expenses.

Mrs. Miller was held to the grand jury without bail by Police Judge Stevens after she waived examination on a murder charge.

What He Saw At Movies Caused Him To Sue

Soup Lines Loom For Toledo Jobless

TOLEDO, O.—The opening today of the special employment bureau under J. R. Cowell as special commissioner, revealed many cases of destitution in Toledo due to unemployment. Two thousand persons applied for work and many were in pitiable circumstances, being without breakfast or suitable clothing when they reported to the bureau.

Street jobs are being opened up to take care of one hundred. Authorities admit that the situation is a grave one and that soup lines may be necessary before the winter has passed. It is estimated that more than 15,000 persons are out of work here.

BRIDGEPORT, CONN.—A soup kitchen for jobless was opened here.

DISARMAMENT RESOLUTION IS FAVORABLY REPORTED

Millions Improperly Paid Shipbuilders By Board, Charged

Lodge Hopes To Bring It Up At Early Date

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 20.—Senator Borah's resolution proposing negotiations for reduction of naval building by the United States, Great Britain and Japan was reported favorably today by the senate foreign relations committee.

In lieu of the original proposal that the negotiations look to a reduction of fifty percent in future building for five years, the committee proposed that the negotiations provide for such reductions as can be agreed upon.

No record vote was taken on the Borah resolution, but that offered by Senator Walsh, Democrat, proposing that the United States have an American representative participate with the disarmament commission of the League of Nations was defeated 8 to 3 on a straight party alignment.

Chairman Lodge said it was impossible to say when the resolution could be brought before the senate, but that he hoped it would be at an early date.

The committee finally decided to limit the proposed negotiations to the United States, Great Britain and Japan, voting down a proposal by Senator McCumber, Republican, North Dakota, to extend it to include France and Italy. Sentiment of the committee was represented as being that the other nations would follow the lead of the three principal powers.

The committee struck out the preamble of the Borah resolution which declared that a Japanese official had said that Japan could not consent to naval reduction without action by the United States.

Another amendment made was to minor phraseology to limit the negotiations to naval disarmament and exclude all consideration of military reduction. This was the intention of Senator Borah, but some members felt that the original language was not clear.

JOHNSON AND BORAH, BITTER ENDERS, NOT CALLED TO MARION

BY ROBERT T. SMALL
(Copyright, 1921, by Times Pub. Co.)

MARION, O., Jan. 19.—As the best mind conferences near themselves away and the time draws near for the departure of the President-Elect for the south it has become a matter of comment that two rather distinguished American minds have not thus far appeared on the Marion horizon. They are minds that at one time and another have dealt not lovingly but log upon the League of Nations and the treaty of Versailles. In fact, if a search were made of the Senate records, it probably would be ascertained that these two minds have been about the most active in that august body ever since the European pact came into the field of Senatorial observation. The moment President Wilson set foot on French soil as head of the American Mission, those two minds became irreconcilable and through storm and stress they have remained irreconcilable unto the end.

Senator Harding himself is not an irreconcilable and his mind does not go along with statements of that ilk. He has been hailed as the great conciliator. The greatest to darken the White House doors probably since McKinley.

Borah and Johnson Did Not Come

But it would appear as events have shaped themselves here in Marion that Mr. Harding has hesitated to draw Senator W. E. Borah of Idaho and

Get The Boys To Fight The English Sparrow

The English sparrow is an outlaw and robber. It drives out peaceable and beneficial members of the feathered tribes.

It replaces their lilting songs with discordant clamor. It destroys fruit, grain and garden truck. Nothing is sacred to it. It defiles all buildings from barns to mansions.

For these reasons the United States Government has declared war on the English sparrow. It calls upon all citizens to join in a campaign for the destruction of this greedy and chattering marauder.

The Department of Agriculture has printed a booklet which tells the dramatic story of the English sparrow's introduction into the United States, its phenomenal multiplication, and its menace. It lays down a plan of campaign for fighting this filthy and destructive bird. Get this booklet and enlist the boys of your community in the campaign.

Our Washington Information Bureau will secure a copy of this Government publication for any one who sends two cents in stamps to pay for the return postage.

Business Men Want Harding To Form Economic Council With Which To Consult

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1921, by Times Pub. Co.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Leading business men want Warren G. Harding on his assumption of the Presidency to create an informal economic council or cabinet with which he could consult on legislative and other policies of Government that affect the nation's business.

The council would be unofficial and responsible only to the Chief Executive who could of course accept or reject the suggestions made. The function of the council would be purely advisory. The idea grows out of the splendid use which the Government made during the war of just such advisory bodies.

Business Men Want National Aspect

Business men of prominence who have been discussing the idea were at first inclined to take it to Marion but they concluded that it was something that could just as well be taken up after Mr. Harding is inaugurated. The principal argument which is made in behalf of an economic council is that Congress shortly will begin to revise the tariff. Political pressure will be brought to bear by sections of the country and by individuals where particular interests are affected. It is contended to look at the tariff question from a national aspect, considering particularly the effect of a bill as a whole on the foreign trade of the country or international exchange. From whom would Mr. Harding be able to get an unbiased and national point of view of the tariff? The tariff committee and members of the Finance and Ways and Means Committees of Congress would be absorbed in the scientific application of tariff rates and formulas. Thus the purely business point of view was reflected in (Continued on Page Eight)

Doubt Legality Of Soldier Bonus Resolution

COLUMBUS, O., January 20.—The senate taxation committee today was holding up the soldiers' bonus resolution until an opinion could be obtained from Attorney General Price as to the legality of the proposed bond issue of $25,000,000 to create the state fund with which to pay each of the 240,000 ex-service men and women of the state a bonus of not to exceed $250.

WOULD ABOLISH PRIMARY SYSTEM

COLUMBUS, O., January 20.—A proposed constitutional amendment abolishing the direct primary system in Ohio and returning to the old convention system of nominating candidates was before the house today, having been introduced yesterday by Representative Burns, of Washington county.

Friends of the direct primary system in the house and senate were preparing to put up a fight for the direct primary. Senator George H. Bender, Cleveland, announced that he and others were planning to call to the defense of the Ohio primary law such men as Hiram Johnson and former Senator Beveridge, who have been speaking in other states against return to the old convention system.

The letter received is as follows: New York, January 12, 1921. Mr. J. Paul Heibel, Manager, Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce, Portsmouth, Ohio. Dear Sir:—

Your letter of January 4th just received, stating that the Directors of the Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce and the leading business and professional men of your city are anxious to know when we could take up the matter of a new passenger station at Portsmouth.

I regret I cannot give you anything definite at the present time; we will have to know more about what the future brings forth in prospective business and earnings. This company's earnings and tonnage are falling off rapidly, and to an alarming extent, and we cannot, therefore, go into a question at this time of large expenditures, especially one that will not afford us any additional revenue but will add to our cost of operation.

It was the intention several years ago to go on with this improvement, but the war came on, Federal control followed, and since that time labor wages and cost of material have been so high that few railroads have been able to have any surplus income for any proposition. What little we have is still held by the Government, and it is not definitely settled when we can even get this money paid to us.

We will still keep in mind the matter of Portsmouth passenger station, and when the opportune time appears, we will be glad to take it up with you. Yours very truly, N. D. MAHER, President.

In his letter Mr. Maher says that the building of a new depot does not tend to increase revenue and adds only to the cost of operation. The N. & W. is going to spend large sums of money the coming months on improvements, but it is pointed out that these improvements tend to increase the revenue instead of being only additions to the cost of operation.

With the subject of the new railroad station must be taken up the matter of grade elimination, overhead and underground crossings, incident to the proposed new station. Twenty-five per cent of the cost of overhead crossings must be borne by the city unless a street railway company also makes use of the crossing, in which case the street railway company would have to bear 50 per cent of the city's proportion of the cost. The city bears the entire maintenance cost of overhead crossings.

The Chamber of Commerce has received many requests for something to be done with the new depot question. The railroad committee of the past year had the matter before them but the condition of the financial world was not the least bit encouraging.

It was pointed out today by one of those interested in the depot that "in the matter of finances in connection with a new depot the fact should not be overlooked that the City and Portsmouth Street Railway and Light Company should be ready to go ahead with their parts of the work and cost when the necessary money on hand to pay for part of the crossing elimination and the Street Railway should be in position to pay its part of the cost. The Street Railway is already asking for increased rates in order to meet operating costs and some favorable steps along this line will have to be taken before the company can be asked to share in the cost of the crossing elimination."

The railroad committee of the Chamber of Commerce will continue correspondence with President Maher relative to the proposed new depot in order to keep him informed as to what the city and other interests are doing relative to this important matter.

British Interests, Supported By Americans, Attempting To Destroy U.S. Merchant Marine, Says Senator

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 20.—Charges that the International Mercantile Marine Company, an American shipping company, now controlling the operation of approximately forty vessels leased from the shipping board, is bound by an agreement entered into with the British government in 1903, to pursue "no policy injurious to the interest of the British mercantile marine or of British trade," were made today by Senator Jones in an address before the annual convention of the National Merchant Marine Association in which the senator made sweeping charges of attempts by British interests, supported, he said, by certain American interests, to destroy the American merchant marine.

The agreement, as quoted by Senator Jones, reserved the right of termination by the British government in event of the pursuance of any policy by injurious to the British mercantile marine and left the final decision "in case of any difference as to the intent and meaning of this agreement, or any dispute arising thereunder," to the "lord high chancellor of Great Britain." Provision is made for continuance of the agreement after the twenty year period "subject to notice of five years on either side."

As a result of this agreement, Senator Jones said, the steamship lines owned by the International Mercantile Marine Company as well as the leased shipping board vessels now under its control are "actually operating in the interest of the British government."

Senator Jones asked to be excused, saying he was compelled to return to the senate for the regular session. Senator Randolph, of Louisiana, who presided, then recognized Mr. Franklin to reply to the charges. "It is manifestly unfair and unjust," Mr. Franklin said, "for a member of the senate of the United States to make such charges against the International Mercantile Marine Company. The company is American. Some but Americans are on its board of directors. Ninety-nine percent of its stock is held by Americans."

Davis Gains Freedom; Again Assaults Wife

A quarrel over family affairs led to a fight between John Davis, aged 21 years, and his wife, at their home, Fourteenth and Waller streets, Wednesday night and the arrest of Davis later by the police on a charge of wife beating.

While searching for Davis the officers went through his house and discovered nearly a gallon of moonshine liquor, which was confiscated and he will probably have to meet an additional charge of unlawfully possessing the liquor.

Davis secured his release from custody by posting $100 bond and went back home and assaulted his wife again, she told the officers Thursday when she called at police headquarters seeking a warrant for his arrest.

Neither Fighter Has Posted His Forfeit

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Neither Jack Dempsey nor Georges Carpentier, under contract to meet in a $500,000 championship heavy-weight boxing bout next summer, have put up their forfeit money with the depository here, it was announced today by F. J. Fuller, vice president of the Central Union Trust Company.

"Dempsey has made no deposit whatever with us," said Mr. Fuller. "We have never heard from him except as to an assignment of rights in the moving pictures of the bout, which have nothing to do with the deposit required of him."

"Carpentier has made no deposit as required by the bout contract. He has deposited some French securities with Morgan-Harjes and Company, Paris bankers, but these can not be exported to this country under the French law of April, 1916, which calls for previous consent of the government of France. Charles H. Cochran, the British promoter, has deposited the money required of him and William A. Brady and Tex Rickard, the American promoters, have covered their deposits with "surety bonds" as allowed by the law.

Young People's Night Tonight

Wednesday night was women's night at Manly church. As is the usual result in a contest between men and women they beat the men by having a greater number present than the men had on Tuesday night, men's night. The sermon by Rev. Wolf was based on the text: "Therefore if a man be in Christ he is a new creature." Before a man is fitted to become a citizen of the kingdom of God a second or spiritual birth is required for he must cease fulfilling the desires of the flesh and instead fulfill the desires of the spirit before he can come into the fellowship of God. Jesus himself likens the conversion of man into a second birth for it places him in a new realm of deeper understanding and happiness.

Huntington Mayor May Not Be Able To Enforce The Blue Laws

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Jan. 21.—Blue Sunday in Huntington is likely to pass into history if a measure introduced into the senate today by Play S. Chapman, member from Cabell, is enacted into law. The bill is described in the title as being designed to amend the section of the existing law relating to powers of mayors. It provides that in such cities as have municipal police judges, mayors shall not have the authority to act as justices of the peace, ex-officio. This is the authority under which Mayor Campbell acted when he caused the arrest of business men for Sunday activities after the city ordinance had been held invalid and the justices of the peace had refused to support him in his "Blue Sunday" campaign.

Mesopotamian Language.

The characters of the language of Mesopotamia, like the Egyptian, were originally hieroglyphic, and the several hundred groups of wedges by means of which the language was expressed in writing, may now be traced to the original hieroglyphics. One of the early picture-words was a crescent and star, and the picture was employed to express an incantation of exorcism, or anything capable of driving the evil spirit from the body of which it had taken possession.

Every Great Book. Every great book is an action, and every great action is a book. All who would study with advantage in any art whatsoever, ought to think themselves to the reading of some sure and certain books attentively over; for to read many books produce confusion, rather than learning, like as those who dwell everywhere are not anywhere at home.—Martin Luther.

Tides Move Big Building. The historic Tower of London moves four times daily as the tides of the Thames river ebb and flow. The movement is most pronounced in the part nearest the river. The movement is due to the fact that many tons of water penetrate under the foundations with the rising tide, which movement has the effect of moving upward the whole mass of the tower.

Real Meaning of Old Saying. The Englishman's misuse of the aspirate has twisted an old saying into a peculiar fashion. Our forefathers were wont to declare that a person was "as mad as an utter." This has now become "batter" and most people imagine it has something to do with a manufacturer of hats. As a matter of fact the original "utter" meant "adder."

CAR FARE INCREASE TO BE TAKEN UP AT SPECIAL MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL

The regular meeting of city council Wednesday evening was marked by its brevity, little legislation and no business of importance outside the usual routine coming up for consideration at the session which was speeded up by President pro tem Albert Westphal, who presided in the absence of President George Vandervoort.

The proposed street car fare increase was expected to come up for consideration at the meeting but after a conference it was decided to make the proposition a special order of business at an adjourned meeting to be held next Tuesday evening at which time Solicitor Skelton stated that the special committee composed of himself, Mayor Gableman and Member Westphal, chairman of the committee on railroads, will make its report of the result of its conferences with officials of the company. The meeting will start at seven o'clock and an open discussion of the proposition will be made.

Exceptions Are Taken By Sikes

Frank L. Sikes, Sciotoville, told council he took exceptions to the special committee on the street car fare problem holding meetings without giving him and others an opportunity to be heard but on being assured that the committee had taken no definite action and would make no recommendations in its report, Mr. Sikes said nothing further to say and he will be given a hearing when the matter comes out at the special meeting.

Engineer George S. Wilhelm requested council to formulate a definite plan for the proposed improvement of Gallia street, Chillicothe to Young street. He stated that the preliminary surveys had been completed and submitted two estimates of the cost, one of $151,000 based on using new material and the other of $119,000 with the use of old material, 60 to 70 per cent of which would be available he estimated. It was stated that the city's proportion of the cost would be approximately $90,000, including about $30,000 for all street intersections and alleys, leaving property owners to bear 50 per cent of the cost for the work abutting on their premises.

The engineer advised against resurfacing the street declaring that a better foundation was needed for the heavy traffic and he suggested that the street be torn up and repaved, using a concrete base. After some discussion the matter was referred to the street committee and engineer for action.

A delegation headed by V. E. Martin, representing the Rose Ridge Welfare Association was present and presented a petition requesting improvements to the streets and sidewalks in that addition. They wanted to be helped out of the mud declaring that the streets were in such condition that even the mail man could not reach their homes, causing them to erect mail boxes several squares away. They suggested that Harmon and Jackson streets be paved and that the "swag" in the street at the Harmon street bridge be filled so that they would not have to use boats to get to town every little while in the Ohio river. The petition was referred to the street committee and engineer for a report.

Three Ordinances Are Passed

Three ordinances were passed under suspension of the rules, one appropriating $300 to pay the cost of repaving Gallia avenue, at West avenue, New Boston, where the street was damaged by the break in the water main last March and another voted $145 to pay the salary of Officer Stanley Schroeder during his disability caused by a mad dog bite and the third authorized a bond issue of $2,000 to provide funds to pay the cost of repaving the Mahert Road sewer where it passes under the N. & W. and L. & O. railroad tracks at East Portsmouth.

One hundred wholesale and retail merchants through a resolution presented protests against permitting so-called "truck" peddlers of fruit and produce to sell their goods without paying a license, pointing out that these peddlers do not pay one cent toward the upkeep of the city but are allowed to compete with the regular taxpaying merchants. Mayor Gableman advised council that the peddlers referred to were those selling fruit and other products from railroad cars and that they were being charged $5 a day license as provided for by a city ordinance. The petition was referred to the ordinance and market committee.

Citizens of Thomas avenue "weighed in" with their usual appeal to be helped out of the mud, demanding some relief from the bad condition of the road. The petition was again referred to the service department.

The matter of renaming the streets of Sciotoville so as to avoid a conflict in names of streets in the city proper was referred to the street committee and Sciotoville citizens, including Judge Sikes.

The appointment of Charles W. Rierley as a member of the board of health for a term of five years starting Jan. 1, 1921, was announced in a communication read from Mayor Gableman. The appointment was confirmed and notice was received from George E. Kricker as a member of the Sinking Fund Trustees for a term of four years commencing Jan. 1, 1921, was received. This appointment needed no confirmation.

Legislation was ordered to pay the claim of Harper and Ruel amounting to $2,632.34 for installing sewers in the Sunnyside Addition. The original contract was for over $12,000 but there was only $10,000 in the fund at the time the work was finished.

Refuse To Pay Wharfage

Service Director Gergens again called attention to the refusal of steamboatmen to pay wharfage fees by reason of the condition of the river landing and urged some action toward repair of the grade. He stated he had been advised that boat owners are not only willing but anxious to pay fees but promise to pay all arrears as soon as work is started. The project of repairing the grade has been under discussion for some months and several estimates have been submitted but the work has been held up on account of lack of funds. The street committee and engineer were again asked to wrestle with the proposition and submit a report at the next meeting.

A revised ordinance was passed fixing license fees for picture shows at $100, $75 and $50 a year, according to seating capacity and repealing the old ordinance which fixed the fee at $25. Legislation was ordered on the recommendation of Solicitor Skelton to pay the claim of The Nicola Building company amounting to $1,905, including interest for plastering the city pumping station, the amount representing a judgment rendered by the court against the city on the second cause of action in the suit of the company for damages and for extras. The city won on the first or big cause of action which involved in excess of $30,000, the court holding that the city was not liable.

The making of repairs to the city buildings was referred to the street committee.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Vaughn Finney, one of the city's most talented musicians, has been selected as the new organist for Trinity M. E. church. She will succeed Mrs. Sannel R. Crawford, who was forced to resign owing to ill health. She had filled the position most acceptably for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Horr of Franklin avenue will entertain with a six o'clock dinner tonight, the honor guests being Charles N. Anderson and W. H. Newcomb of The Anderson-Newcomb company of Huntington. They are here to attend the annual meeting of The Anderson Bros. company tonight.

Miss Erma Scherbaum of Gallia street entertained the following guests for cards and dancing last evening: Misses Florence Daehler, Mildred Purdum, Myrtle Partlow, Ethel Kirsch, Maud Campbell, Nan Foley, Mary Graf, Messrs. Harold Hayes, Drew London, Charles Abbott, J. A. Channing, Louis Maquet, James Wood, Walter Molander and William Meyer.

Mr. Howard K. Moore's name was unintentionally omitted from the committee on arrangements for the Masonic Dance which will be held next Tuesday evening at the Bessie Danes Academy. While it goes without saying that the ladies will be handsomely gown for the occasion, yet it is not intended to make it a strictly dress affair, and all ladies are urged to be present and gown in comfort. The spirit of the occasion will be for folk to meet and mingle with other folk, sociability being the keynote.

The marriage of Miss Laura Warnock of Warnock, Ky., and Mr. Cyrus Van Bibber of Hoods, Ky., was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock by the Rev. N. E. Butler at his home on Gallia street.

After a short visit here, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Wolff have returned to Columbus.

True Greatness

HE BELIEVES IT SAVED HIS WIFE'S LIFE

"Honestly, I don't believe my wife would be living today but for Tanlac," declared O. E. Brantner, 2324 Chase St., Toledo, Ohio.

"Why Tanlac has not only relieved all her troubles, but has built her up fifteen pounds in weight besides. For three years she suffered from indigestion, nervousness and other troubles, and kept getting worse until she was almost a complete wreck."

"I spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment but nothing did her a particle of good. She could not eat or sleep, suffered constantly from severe headaches, and fell off in weight until she was just a shadow of what she had been. She got weaker all the time, and was going down hill so fast I didn't see how she could stand it much longer."

"I was right on the verge of despair and didn't know which way to turn when I decided as a last resort to see what Tanlac could do for her. It was astonishing to see how fast she began to improve. She now has a fine appetite, is free from nervousness, and is stronger and in better health generally than she has been for years. My gratitude to Tanlac is unbounded, and I am more than glad to tell what it has done for my wife."

Tanlac is sold in Portsmouth by The Fisher and Streich Pharmacy and the leading druggists in every town.

Appointment Of Poor Is Confirmed

COLUMBUS, O., January 20.—George T. Poor, Republican, Cincinnati, was expected to take his place on the state public utilities commission today, succeeding Byron Clendenning, Democrat, of Cincinnati, following confirmation of his appointment late yesterday by the state senate.

Two senators, J. F. Burke, of Elyria, and George H. Bender, of Cleveland, asked to be excused from voting on Mr. Poor's confirmation. They are said to have been opposed to his selection but gave no reason for their opposition in asking to be excused from voting.

Reorganization of the utilities commission is expected now that Republicans have a majority on the board. The term of Beecher W. Waltemire, the other Republican member, expires February 1. Appointments on the commission are for a period of six years and the salary is $6,000 a year.

Two other appointees of Governor Davis, R. W. Swisher, Democrat, of Columbus, as state civil service commissioner, and Henry Dykeman, Republican, Elyria, as state fire marshal, were also confirmed by the senate yesterday. Mr. Dykeman succeeded W. J. Leonard, Democrat, of Cincinnati, as head of the marshal's department, today.

DOES IT PAY TO WORRY ABOUT APPENDICITIS?

Can appendicitis be guarded against? Yes, by preventing intestinal infection. The intestinal antiseptic, Adlerika, acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel removing ALL foul, decaying matter which might start infection. EXCELLENT for gas on stomach or chronic constipation. It removes matter which you never thought was in your system and which nothing else can dislodge. One man reports it is unbelievable the awful impurities Adlerika brought out. Wurster Bros.—adv.

It is much easier for a young man to fool his own mother than it is for him to fool any other woman.

Their Likeness.

"Baseball pitchers are like goods in transportation in one way." "What's that?" "They are put into the box for express delivery purposes."

Weaver Insists He Is Innocent

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Regardless of his suspension from the Chicago Americans and his indictment by the Cook county grand jury for alleged conspiracy in the 1919 world's series, Buck Weaver, former White Sox third baseman, declared today he will be taken back.

Weaver bet $500 that he would be a member of the White Sox team next season, when baseball gossip started among spectators at the six day bicycle races at the coliseum. "I'll prove to everybody that I am innocent of the charges against me,"

Weaver declared. "I have a contract with the White Sox and I will be a member of the team next season. They can't start that trial too soon to suit me. When it's over I'll be cleared." No-one in the party Weaver addressed accepted the wager.

One of the local members who circulated one of the petitions was ordered suspended by the higher Councils but the local Council refused to take such action, the entire lodge being suspended as the result. During the suspension four local members died and the benefit department would not pay the claims. The case was carried to the civil courts and before a compromise was received from the Benefit Department. The local Council has been fully reinstated. The members who died and whose claims have been allowed were Adam Schmidt, Carl Reinhard, William Goodman and Charles Barbee.

IRON STARVATION

Of the blood perhaps and your worn out exhausted nerves need to be revitalized. For this purpose there is nothing better than Nuxated Iron, not metallic iron which people usually take, but pure Organic Iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. One dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat.

Over four million people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often cause you to eat your food. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain satisfactory results. At all druggists.

Higher Councils will mean much to the local Council. A drive for new members will start at once many new ones being added in the last few months. A special dispensation is granted for $2 and reinstatement for $2 has been received. After several short talks on the job of the order the team held a practice. All members are urged to be present at next week's meeting.

THIS WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Brings a Ray of Hope to Childless Women

Lowell, Mass.—"I had anemia from the time I was sixteen years old and was very irregular. If I did any housecleaning or washing I would faint and have to be put to bed, my husband thinking every minute was my last. After reading your text-book for women I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used the Sanative Wash, and have never felt better than I have the last two years. I can work, eat, sleep, and feel as strong as can be. Doctors told me I could never have children—I was too weak—but after taking Vegetable Compound it strengthened me so I gave birth to an eight pound boy. I was well all the time, did all my work up to the last day, and had a natural birth. Everybody who knew me was surprised, and when they asked me what made me strong I tell them Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Use this testimonial at any time."—Mrs. ELIZABETH SMART, 112 W. Sixth St., Lowell, Mass.

This experience of Mrs. Smart is surely a strong recommendation for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is only one of a great many similar cases.

WHAT THE BLUE TRIANGLE STANDS FOR

It stands for the Womanhood of America for the Womanhood of the World.

In the World war we fought, worked and gave for an ideal. Can we do less for our ideals of Womanhood than we did for our ideals of our Country?

Do you know your local Y. W. C. A. is doing for the girls of Seoto and other counties?

In a group of 1500 girls and women who are employed in stores and factories about 11 per cent are without homes and are entirely dependent on their own earnings, while about 50 per cent of those living at home contribute all their earnings to the support of their family.

Women's wages have advanced at the rate of the proverbial snail, while prices of food and clothing have worn seven leagued boots, making more girls go out to work to earn the necessities of life, and right here is where the Y. W. C. A. with the Sign of the Blue Triangle comes to the rescue.

Do you know your local Y. W. C. A. can house only about 40 girls at one time. Since the cafeteria has been installed, as some of the rooms had to be vacated for this work. You can see that this is only a small percentage of the girls who should have the protection of the Home and its influences. Where are the others?

From about 300 to 350 girls are being cared for annually in the home, these coming from not only our own Seoto county, but all of the surrounding counties and Kentucky and the Virginias. If there isn't a vacancy in the Home the Secretaries get busy in locating a respectable but inexpensive room in a private home until such time when there is a vacancy.

The girls living in the Home have the privileges of a large living room and another smaller one both of which are comfortably furnished in brown wicker furniture also two pianos, victrola, bookcase filled with good books and always there is a late magazine handy. And this is a good time to say, that if you have or know of a good book which needs to be in the hands of our girls, now is the time to send it over to corner of Second and Gay. Not only do our girls have these privileges but they are given a new ticket for $3.00. Their room costing from $1.00 to $2.00 per week. Girls living outside of the house holding a $1.00 membership pay $3.50 for the ticket, and may have the use of the living rooms and parlors at any time in which to meet their friends.

Very well equipped laundry is provided where the girls can do their own laundry, also they have the opportunity of doing their own sewing.

A cafeteria has been installed downstairs with special rates for girls and members of the Y. W. C. A. Every one who has eaten at the cafeteria know we serve real home cooking. We have had one of the finest cooks in the city, Mrs. Margaret Minor in charge of the work both of the planning and serving the appetizing dishes which greeted the many patrons who have been regular visitors at our place of business. Mrs. Minor has proved herself to be a very capable woman and our patrons can speak for the food.

The Blue Triangle has meant much to the City of Portsmouth which the people as a whole do not realize, and in the coming months it is going to mean much more. That is if YOU do your part. You will ask what is your part. One of the many things will be to rally to the forces when the membership campaign is put on within the next few months. Another is to get busy and find out all the good things about us and tell your neighbor. Why? Because some day your own sister or daughter might need the help and assistance we are trying to give to those who need it.

GIVEN UP TO DIE OF STOMACH TROUBLE

But Mr. Baker is well now. Feels like he did at 16.

"One year ago in September I was taken down: couldn't eat, sleep or work. The doctors didn't know exactly what was the matter. Some said I had catarrhal gastritis, and others, cancer. Anyway, I was given up to die."

"A friend persuaded me to try Milk's Emulsion. In 2 or 3 weeks, the soreness went out of my lungs, the pains vanished from between my shoulders, and I began to eat and sleep, and work. Also the miserable lonesome feeling began to tear loose and that heavy weight in the left side of my stomach, that hung like a huge iron ball, disappeared."

"By the time I had taken 21 bottles, I could eat anything, sleep like a baby, and the old time vim came back. I felt like I did when I was 16."

Lyman Baker, Star Route, Berryville, Ark.

"Got the stomach and bowels working right, and most ailments started to leave. Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and laxatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk's Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved."

"This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere."

The Yellow Dog

NUMBER 12

After all there is just one thing that constitutes the difference between a good street car line and a poor one, and after everything has been canvassed we are brought sharply face to face with this one subject, "Earning Capacity."

These two words play a bigger part in our lives of today than any others in the dictionary.

Destroy the "earning capacity" of any industry and sooner or later the industry will fail.

Destroy the "earning capacity" of the individual and sooner or later, if not provided for by relatives or friends, he becomes a public charge.

To properly function each person in a Democracy has his part to play, and his "earning capacity" in playing that part is his reward be it small or large.

So with your street railroad its "earning capacity" has been destroyed by economical conditions, no one could foresee, and to properly play its part in our community it is necessary that that "earning capacity" be rebuilt. The mythical needle is nothing more than increased rates.

Street railroads have been so crippled in the last four years, and the public has come to regard their securities in such an unfavorable light that a mere temporary relief will not attract people to invest money in these securities; what is needed is something in a concrete form that will guarantee the investor against a repetition of the existing conditions, which have caused the securities of street railways to shrink fifty per cent in value. To be able to guarantee this to the investor and at the same time protect the public, provisions are necessary that the rates can be raised or lowered to conform to economic conditions, that the investor will be secured and the patrons will be guaranteed the lowest rates consistent with good service.

With this accomplished, we can pay our workmen their just reward for the part they play in the manufacture of this service, offer security for the investors, and pay a reasonable return to the stockholders.

Speaking of the employees brings to mind the sacrifices they made during the war.

The stockholders were not the only ones who made sacrifices. The men that operated these cars and men in other departments kept their demands on the company to the minimum, because they knew the "earning capacity" of the company was destroyed, and they were fair minded enough to take this into consideration.

We feel and the public should feel obligated to allow us to at least maintain the present scale of wages paid to the employees producing this service.

The last place we would look to economize would be to ask these men to accept a reduction in wages, and it is the last thing the public should force by withholding the necessary relief to permit us to maintain the present scale.

Having rebuilt the "earning capacity" the Company will be obligated to do its part in return for the reward to be received, and it will be ever upmost in the management of this company to give the best we can for that which we receive. Let us all pull together for the glory and advancement of this community, the comfort and convenience of the people, and develop a willingness to be fair with each other, thereby showing our neighbors that we are for fair play and have a good place to live in.

THRIFT--OWN YOUR HOME

Thrift is the management of your affairs in such a manner that the value of your possessions is constantly being increased. While thrift does not necessarily mean money saving only yet the actual accumulation of money is the outward and visible sign that a man is really thrifty, and although thrift means more than a mere saving to a large extent saving is the measure of a man's progress. While saving alone is not thrift, it is an indispensable part of it.

It is not the easiest thing in the world to save money. To save money there are two things which are very important—having a definite object in view and being systematic.

Having an object will help you to concentrate your efforts and bend all your energies in the desired direction. One of the best objects, we know of, for every father and husband is to own his own home. One man says "The man who owns his own home, who owns the roof over his head and ground under his feet, whose children have a place that they look upon as their own, gives to himself and to his family a chance a thousand times better than that of the individual who is living in a box called an apartment or a house belonging to someone else to whom a rental must be paid." Don't buy what you can not afford to pay for. But remember, that if you are really able to pay the average rent, you are also able to pay for and gradually buy a home and own it. In the owned home, the ideal family life is found. Children are brought up in the more wholesome surroundings. The home owner has high ideals and a deep sense of the responsibilities of life.

Savings and loan associations have helped many persons of moderate incomes to be thrifty and to own their own homes. Even more could be done, if persons saving money would deposit their savings with these institutions. Then more loans could be made to the wage earners to buy their homes. Loans could be made to home builders and thus give work and employment to the artisans of the building trades. Money deposited with The Royal will go to build up Portsmouth.

Bring in your funds and your friends, too, with their savings and put their money to work here, where it will be safe and available while earning you a steady income.

We need your money to aid in the building of homes, to meet the growing industrial expansion, where every dollar of our funds is invested and help to pay the expenses of the community.

We issue building association stock upon which the dividends are paid twice a year at the usual rate.

We receive money on savings or time deposit upon which a guaranteed rate of interest is paid. Savings receive 4 per cent compounded four times a year and certificates 5 per cent on six months time deposits.

Will you help build up Portsmouth by depositing at The Royal? It will pay you to do so.

Harding Packs His Trunk For Vacation Trip

MARION, O., January 20.—President-elect Harding packed his trunk today for a long absence from his home town. Although he will return here for a visit of one day after his vacation trip to Florida, which begins tonight, he virtually has closed out his personal affairs here and is ready to give up for four years at least, his place in the local community.

His active proprietorship of the Marion Star, whose guiding influence he has been for 30 years, was relinquished last night, when he stepped down voluntarily as president of the Harding Publishing Company. At the insistence of his fellow stockholders, however, he accepts the chairmanship of the board of directors of the company, an honorary position. The president-elect's train for Florida will leave shortly before midnight, traveling via Columbus, Cincinnati, Chattanooga, Atlanta and Jacksonville to St. Augustine, Florida, where it will arrive Saturday morning.

Kentucky Shooting Affair Puts Three In A Hospital

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 20.—Edward Tharp, 37; Scott Tharp, 27 and "Hop" Davis, 60, all of Breathitt county, are in a serious condition at Lexington hospitals from wounds received in a pistol duel at Buckhorn, Breathitt county, Tuesday afternoon.

According to friends of the wounded men who accompanied them here from Breathitt county "Hop" Davis and Edward Tharp, who is a son-in-law of Davis, became involved in an argument over family affairs and Davis shot Tharp through the abdomen. Hearing the shot, Scott Tharp, a brother of Edward, rushed to his assistance and Davis also shot the younger brother. Edward Tharp then wrested the revolver from his father-in-law and shot him three times.

Edward Tharp and Davis are not expected to live. Scott Tharp was operated on immediately after reaching the hospital and may recover.

GOODRICH SETS ASIDE $7,000,000 AS RESERVE

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Directors of the B. F. Goodrich Company today voted to set aside out of surplus funds seven million dollars as a reserve to provide against possible losses on raw material commitments and deferred decision of the May dividend on common stock until the annual stockholders meeting next April.

Wants Wagner To Join Team

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 20.—Hans Wagner, former "grand old man" of baseball, is among the players desired by George Lawson for his new Continental league. It was learned here today. Wagner last year coached the Carnegie Tech squad and played on an all star team bearing his name.

ON TRIAL FOR SLAYING PARTNER, HUSBAND RECITES CHAPTERS IN TRAGIC LOVE TANGLE

Justus B. Murray, the husband; Mrs. Murray, for love of whom he says he killed Howard Phillips, and the four high spots in the tragedy.

On trial for the murder of Howard Phillips, a former friend and partner in business, Justus B. Murray took the stand in a Cincinnati court recently and told quietly his reasons for slaying Phillips. Phillips was killed in front of the boarding house in Newport, Ky., where Mrs. Murray, separated from her husband, lived. Murray says that Phillips, as a friend and partner in a chain of bakeries, visited the Murray home often and finally violated the trust Murray placed in him, even causing Mrs. Murray to leave her husband. Murray told how he had denounced Phillips at one time for his acts and that a reconciliation with Mrs. Murray followed when Phillips promised to refrain from paying attention to Mrs. Murray. Later he learned Phillips was seeing Mrs. Murray and the shooting followed.

Business Men Want Council

The national business organizations of the country and the banking world might be "unrepresented." But the authors of the idea—and among them are men of influence—the council be made solely of business men. They suggest representatives of labor and of agriculture as well as distinguished economists shall sit on the advisory council and be called into session whenever the President has any particular problem on which he wants advice or judgment.

Much dispute over legislation and in the past the chief executives probable effects of legislation and while some members of Congress have contended that a particular bill would help foreign trade others have argued that it would hurt. There has been no group of disinterested individuals with a business viewpoint to whom a President could turn for an authoritative opinion or investigation. No President knows all about business and in the past chief executives have relied upon a few friends some of whom have given good advice and some of whom have innocently given bad advice. Many business men who see a bad piece of legislation in the making are either too busy or too modest to write the President or to call on him and point out the flaws. The pro and con of business legislation is usually fought out by the particular interests who are adversely affected and very little noise is made by the large number of people who might be benefited. Even such a powerful institution as the Chamber of Commerce of the United States is made up of a varied lot of interests and it is not always advisable for the executives of that organization to commit themselves without a referendum of members—a process that is satisfactory when a concrete proposal is voted upon but which does not help so much when legislation is in the process of construction and advice is needed from day to day as to a variety of changing phases.

Washington Full of Organizations
Another reason advanced by those proposing an economic cabinet or council is that Washington is full of organizations. Each tells Congress what ought to be done and applies political pressure if its advice is not taken. Congress is pulled from one side to the other and is usually glad when the chief executive steps in and puts his foot down so that the members of Congress are not held to blame for failure to carry out the organizations that held the club over him. But unless he were well posted the President would not be in a position to grapple with these same organizations who would naturally appeal to him. It is not intended that the advisory body shall publish its advice and put the members of the council in embarrassing positions if they happened to give advice which men in their own line of business didn't like. But it is intended that the President should have the full benefit of all the advice a competent and disinterested body representative of American business enters.

Peggy Marsh Married

mayor of Cleveland.

CHICAGO, January 20.—Peggy Marsh, a former chorus girl, whose marriage to Albert L. Johnson became known today, met Henry Field, grandson of Marshall Field, in London. After Henry Field's death in July, 1917, she instituted suit in the superior court of Cook county for the construction of the Marshall Field will. According to the story told by Peggy Marsh, she had received from Henry Field, at least $50,000 in cash and presents. He was further said to have signed an agreement to pay her $100,000.

A formal claim for this latter amount was filed late in 1919, in the probate court against Henry Field's estate. The claim was not contested by the Field family, who let it be known that they recognized Peggy Marsh's son as the child of Henry Field.

The suit to construe the will of Marshall Field so as to give to the actress' son a share in his great-grandfather's millions was successful. But court decisions held the child heir to the $4,000,000 which Henry Field left when he died intestate.

The unsuccessful fight for a share in the undivided principal of the Marshall Field estate turned upon a single phrase in the will. Certain contingencies were made by that instrument dependent upon the testimony of the grandchildren dying "without lawful issue."

The attorneys for the Marsh interests, led by Edward F. Dunne, former governor of Illinois, contended vainly that a child born out of wedlock might be a lawful heir and that therefore Peggy Marsh's son, came within the meaning of the will. The winning contention by the Field estate attorneys was that the big Chicago merchant had in mind the founding of a family line to perpetuate the Field name and expand its interests and that only legitimate children could share in this purpose.

COURT HOUSE

Hopkins On Trial

The case of Harold Hopkins, 20, West Side young man, charged with cutting with intent to kill Martin Sommer, Carey's Run young man, went to trial before Judge Thomas and a jury in Common Pleas court Thursday morning.

The charge grew out of a fight staged on a West Side road on the night of Sept. 14 between the complaining witness, Martin Sommer, and his brother, Ray Sommer, and the defendant, Harold Hopkins, and his brother, Louis Hopkins, and during the encounter Martin Sommer was seriously slashed with a knife in the hand of the accused. It is alleged.

The state contended that the Sommer boys were attacked without cause or justification and the defense made a plea of self-defense, claiming that the others brought on the trouble and were the aggressors.

There was much interest manifested in the outcome of the trial, and scores of West Side persons were present in court to hear the proceedings, many of them being included in the array of witnesses called to testify for or against the accused.

The principal witnesses called by the state were Ray Sommer, Frank and William Grunne, and their version of the trouble substantiated the claims of the prosecution.

Drs. J. S. Kardin and Harry Rapp, who attended the victim of the cutting, described the wounds, the most serious one being a stab in the right side which they said penetrated the abdominal wall.

Attorney Theo. K. Punt assisted Prosecutor Sheppard in handling the prosecution and Attorneys Blair and Blair represent the accused.

Woman Gun User Is Found Guilty Of Manslaughter

After a trial lasting two days, Mrs. Pauline Adams, aged 61 years, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in Common Pleas court Wednesday afternoon. The jury deliberated on the case one hour and turned its verdict into court at 5:40, exactly one hour after Judge Thomas had finished his general charge.

John Staker was foreman of the jury and it is understood the jury stood for conviction from the start of their consideration of the case after reaching the jury room. Only a few ballots were taken and these were to determine the degree of the crime and finally agreeing on manslaughter, although some of the jurors for a time stood out for guilt of the defendant of second degree murder as charged in the indictment, it is said.

The aged defendant apparently took no notice of the reading of the verdict by Clerk Ed. Cunningham and as soon as the jury's action had been announced Judge Blair, counsel for the defendant, promptly excepted to the verdict and gave notice of a motion for a new trial.

The crime for which Mrs. Adams was convicted occurred on Oct. 23, 1920, when she shot and killed William Bond following some trouble between her grandchildren and the children of her victim. The tragedy happened near the home of the defendant on Fifteenth street.

The woman was indicted for second degree murder and pleas of self-defense and insanity were made in her behalf. The state contended that Bond was purposely and willfully murdered.

The verdict of the jury carries with it an indeterminate sentence to the penitentiary for women at Marysville, but sentence was deferred and the defendant was released on bond pending hearing of the motion for a new trial.

Prosecuting Attorney George W. Sheppard, who handled the case for the state, put up a strong fight for conviction and Judge Blair, who defended the accused, made a vigorous effort to save his client.

TELL MY FRIENDS I'M HAPPY AND I KNOW I WILL GET WELL

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Christy Matthewson, former star pitcher of the New York Giants, who for seven months has been fighting a nip and tuck game with tuberculosis at Saratoga Lake, scored yesterday.

Through the long struggle "Big Six" has been unable to leave his bed, and his physicians and wife have been the only persons admitted to his room. From time to time he sent out messages that he was still smiling and would win.

Yesterday, swathed in robes, he was placed in an invalid chair and wheeled out on the front porch. As his wife sat behind him, both unmindful of the fact that the mercury registered twenty below zero, Christy said: "Tell my friends I'm happy and I know I'll get well."

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

The W. G. Sibley Service, Gallipolis, Ohio

Mr. Lansing's Book
Mr. Robert Lansing, former Secretary of State, has written a book on the Paris Conference which will appear March 5. In it he gives his observations of that great sequence to the war.

No man, excepting only President Wilson, is better equipped with inside information of the part America played in the Jones at Versailles, than Mr. Lansing, whose office brought him into the most intimate relations with the events of each day.

Ultimately all the facts hidden under the hood of secrecy which covered the prolonged conference will come out. History must have them; and perhaps it is just as well that they be disclosed upon Mr. Wilson's retirement from office. The public has every reason to expect from Mr. Lansing a notable contribution to the post bellum literature on the problems that followed the war. It is not unlikely that both Mr. Wilson and Colonel House will add their own stories of the turbulent and somewhat mysterious months in which the Peace Covenant and League of Nations were formed. In many events we may expect from Mr. Lansing a dignified, conservative and impartial discussion of the facts.

Mr. Harding Made a Mason
The entrance of Mr. Harding into the rites of Freemasonry has been duly chronicled. He has now received the degrees of the Scottish Rite. There are two rites in Masonry, the York and the Scottish.

The Masonic Fraternity is the oldest and most widely distributed in its membership of any nonsectarian brotherhood. Its recorded history runs back to the fourteenth century, during the era of cathedral building in Europe, when the organization was operative and confined to the building craft. Early in the eighteenth century it became speculative in character, and developed into a system of morals and philosophy. Its traditional chronology runs back to the building of Solomon's Temple.

Mr. Harding's admission into Masonry was wholly a personal and not a political event. Only during a few years of American history was Masonry considered in politics. In 1882 an Anti-Masonic party was formed to defeat for the Presidency both Andrew Jackson, and Henry Clay, who happened to be Freemasons. It carried one state in the election, Vermont.

If we are not at fault Roosevelt and Taft were both Masons. Certainly McKinley was—made one by an army lodge during the Civil War. It may be a surprise to many readers to learn that nearly every prominent leader in the American Federation of Labor is a 32nd degree Mason.

It seems almost too good to be true, but the president of the Chicago hotel men's association declares that when the ethereal mildness of gentle spring arrives we have pie for a nickel a wedge, dollar a night rooms and bread and butter with meals without extra charge. "Then indeed we may be sure 'hardcore' is coming back."

"Independence at fifty open to millions of boys and girls," says a headline. Yes, yes; it has been open for a long, long time, provided only the millions of boys and girls become industrious and thrifty men and women.

But so long as people spend the pleasures of today, and spend their surplus for their indulgence, rather than undergo self-denial and win comfort and security in ten, twenty or thirty years, they will not be independent at fifty or any subsequent age. The problem is to make the young see that future prosperity is worth more than present indulgence. Few parents see it, either for themselves or their children.

Working of Pearl.

There are two kinds of shells used in the manufacture of small articles, the porcelaneous and the nacreous. The former are extremely hard and can be worked only with the apparatus used by the lapidary. The latter are more generally used and may be sawed, filed and turned with some facility. The pieces should be roughed out on a common grindstone. After turning they should be smoothed with pumice stone and water, and polished with rotten stone and sulphuric acid slightly diluted.

Former Congressman Horatio C. Claypool Dies In Columbus

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 20.—Former Congressman Horatio C. Claypool, 62, of Chillicothe, died at Mt. Carmel hospital here last night of uremic poisoning after an illness of several weeks. He served several terms in the house of representatives from the Eleventh district.

Mr. Claypool had many warm friends here, who will regret to learn of his passing away. He was recognized as one of the shrewdest politicians in Southern Ohio.

Home-made, but Has No Equal for Coughs

Makes a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Easily prepared, and saves about $5.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficulty breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with croup and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any drug store can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and relaxes the irritated membrane that lines the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing. Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds. There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Only True reform.
The only reform that really reforms is the reform that comes from the heart of the individual. Not all the king's laws nor all the king's statutes can reform an evil community.—Duke de Boulogne.

Not quite.
He—"That seems quite took my breath away." She (tartly)—"Well, you had it with you when you came back after the act."

Had Warning Enough.
A West Norwood man who described himself as a poet told the magistrate that he had twice been knocked down by a motorcyclist. Our opinion is that he should have given up poetry when he was knocked down the first time.—London Punch.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Apparently erroneous assertions that the Argentine export tax on wheat had been removed today, but a quick rally ensued. The rally was due to the fact that the supposed removal had nothing to do with the 1921 crop. On the other hand, bears continued to feel that the world financial and economic conditions presented any sharp advance for grain. Opening prices, which varied from 1/2 to 1/4 lower, with March 1.71 1/2 to 1.72 and May 1.62 1/2 to 1.63, were followed by upticks that in some cases went above yesterday's finish.

Prices closed heavy, 1/2 to 1/4 net lower, with Mar. 1.68 1/2 to 1.69 and May 1.60 1/2 to 1.61.

Corn swayed with wheat. After opening 1/2 to 1/4 lower, it advanced, including May at 68 1/2 to 69 1/2, the market sagged all around and then showed slight gains.

Oats were governed by the action of other cereals, starting unchanged to 1/4 lower, May 4 1/2 to 4 3/4, and after a moderate general setback recovered full.

Lower quotations on hogs pulled down provisions.

The close was easy, 1/2 to 1/4 net lower, with May 68 1/2 to 69 1/2.

New Galli-Curci Record from Mignon

"Polonaise—Io son Titania"
(I'm Fair Titania)

A dazzling, varied, musically song, which you could almost believe is sung by Titania, the queen of the fairies herself, so light and exquisite is the voice.

Victor Red Seal Record 74653

Orville Harrold sings an American Poem "LIFE"

"Only Good-morning, Good-night and Good-bye," says the song. The gently philosophical words are set by an American composer to music that is full of soft, rich harmonies.

Religious Oratorio by Edward Johnson

"Elijah—If With All Your Hearts"

The beauty of voice and depth of feeling with which this famous composition is given, prove that Johnson, already renowned for his opera and ballad singing, is also a great interpreter of religious music.

Sleeping Sickness
Claiming Ohio Victims

CLEVELAND, O.—A strange malady, thought to be "sleeping sickness," has claimed its first victim in the death of Ralph Heidt, 30, in a local hospital.

Health Director Rockwood today ordered the isolation of all cases of the disease to prevent spread, although little is known of its nature. It is a brain inflammation with symptoms similar to those of the African sleeping sickness, which is said to be spread by the bite of a fly.

Eight cases have been treated at the city hospital during the last month. Many deaths throughout the state from the disease have been reported, it is said.

WITH THE SICK
Mrs. Elizabeth Knost, of Seventeenth street, who has been seriously ill with intestinal trouble, is improving.

Mrs. Okey Springs, of 513 Campbell avenue, underwent a serious operation in Hiram Hospital Wednesday. Her condition was reported satisfactory today.

F. R. Kehoe, president of the Portsmouth Banking Company, who has been ill many weeks at his home on Fourth street, is not much improved.

There is no change in the condition of J. F. Strayer, a well known citizen, who two weeks ago was stricken with paralysis. He is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. O. Richardson, of Franklin avenue.

BIRTHS
Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Knittle, of 920 Washington street, are the parents of a ten pound son, born early Thursday.

A son was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher, of the Selco Trail. Mr. Fisher is a steel worker.

Mrs. Charles Patterson
Mrs. Lydia H. Patterson, widow of T. M. Patterson, 205 Franklin Boulevard, died Wednesday morning of heart disease at her home in Los Angeles, Cal., of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Patterson, of Birmingham, Alabama. Mrs. Patterson had been in poor health for several years and had gone to Los Angeles to spend the winter in hopes the change would benefit her health. The change, however, failed to benefit her and she gradually grew worse until death ended her sufferings. Mrs. Patterson's remains will be taken to Birmingham for burial.

Mrs. Patterson was a Portsmouth girl, having spent her early years here. Her maiden name was Florence Hite. She was married to Charles Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Patterson. Shortly afterwards they located in Birmingham, Alabama, in which city they have since made their home.

Many old time friends of the family will regret to learn of Mrs. Patterson's death, and extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved husband.

Burial Friday
Funeral services for John (Honus) Welly, Civil War veteran and pioneer citizen of Portsmouth who died Tuesday afternoon at his home, 827 Sixth street, will be held from 8 to 9 o'clock at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Mary's Catholic church at 830 P. A. morning with Rev. Father T. A. Geedel officiating at the requiem high mass. Interment will be made in Greenlawn cemetery.

Weak Eyes and Wisdom.
Fair promises are like horn-rimmed spectacles. They don't amount to much unless there is something back of them.

The Everlasting Reminder.
It's not what a man tells us that amazes us; but it's the "I told you so," afterwards that gets our goat.

STOP THAT COUGHING
You are a burden to yourself and everybody else when you are coughing and sneezing. Avoid more serious troubles by checking your cold now. Munyon's Cold Remedy is recommended as the quickest, surest and safest relief for colds ever compounded. "Munyon's" is made solely for relieving colds in the head, throat and lungs, for checking fever and inflammation, and a certified transcript of the proceedings of the County Commissioners of the County of Hamilton, Ohio, shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

THE MOVIES

The Greatest Photo-Drama Since "Birth of a Nation." Shows at the Temple Tonight When "Confession" Will Be Shown.

"Confession" which plays at the Temple tonight is one of the greatest dramas ever put on the screen. The scenes are laid in the Canadian north woods and it is action--fast and furious from beginning to end. Some of the high lights in the picture being the death struggle of a real murderer and leman wrongfully accused of the crime and a moving train, the conviction of an innocent man and his last minute pardon while on the scaffold, and the attempted escape of the murderer through the mountains and the drop made by him over a high waterfall.

A dandy two reel comedy completes the show.

The Truth About

Eczeema and Piles

Thousands and thousands of people, every week that one 32 cent box of Peterson's Ointment will abolish eczeema and banish piles, and the grateful letters I receive every day are worth more to me than money.

"I had eczeema for many years on my head and could not get anything to stop the agony. I saw your ad and got one box and I owe you many thanks for the good it has done me. There isn't a blotch on my head now and I couldn't help but thank Peterson, for the cure is great." Miss Mary Hill, 23 Third Avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.

"I have had itching piles for 15 years and Peterson's is the only ointment that relieves me, besides the piles seem to have gone." A. B. Reger, 1127 Washington Avenue, Racine, Wis.

HALF A CHANCE

 and Lillian Rich
 From the novel by
 Frederic S. Isham

See "Half a Chance" at The Strand Tonight. It's the Season's Sensation. So Powerful It Will Leave An Indelible Impression on Your Heart. Also Big V Comedy and "Velvet Fingers."

With our unqualified Seal of Approval we wish to personally commend the stupendous drama, "Half a Chance," for your attention. It features Mahlon Hamilton, star of "Earthbound," and Lillian Rich. It is adapted from the celebrated novel by Frederic S. Isham. For sheer action, fire, magnificent heart appeal and thrilling scenes, no production--not even "The Spoilers" or "The Barrier" has ever equaled "Half a Chance." It sweeps with the surge of Niagara from the prize ring to a steamer's stokehold--and Peterson's is the only ointment that relieves me, besides the piles seem to have gone." A. B. PISO'S

Tonight the Eastland Theatre Offers The New Screen Sensation, David Butler in "Smiling All The Way." With Leatrice Joy--A Greenwich Village Romance Of Comedy and Thrills--Everybody Is Going To Like David Butler--Be Sure and See His First Picture.

A--Overture, "David Butler." Eastland Orchestra.
 B--Picture, "Smiling All The Way." With Leatrice Joy.
 C--The Weekly News.
 D--Century Comedy, "Twin Crooks."

When "Smiling All The Way" comes at the Eastland tonight audiences will be appraised of a motion picture production of strong situations, gripping dramas and comical episodes interpreted by one of the best casts ever assembled for motion picture making.

First in estimation, is David Butler as the star, impersonating a new type of serio-comic role. The part calls for every possible variation in the art of mimicry. It is at once sad and then in contrast joyful, and then alternates between a philosophic aspect and fades out into a fade in of the sentimental. Supporting him is Leatrice Joy in the role of Alice Dryden, who enacts the role of a society girl. Through misfortune she leaves the glitter behind, and in useful work finds a greater measure of contentment. Then we come to the familiar Harry Todd, whose features before the camera have long qualified him as a comedian of the first water. In this production he impersonates the tragic role of the hen-pecked husband, and the various bits of business that call for the superiority of the widely noted actor before the camera have long qualified him as a comedian of the first water. FAIR ENTRANT IN RABBIT DRIVE IS HEAD RANCH COOK
 One of the fairest and most successful of the many girls and young women who "cook" in the annual rabbit drive, near Corra, Wash., was Miss Adelia Peterson. Miss Peterson formerly presided at the ribbon counter of a department store in Seattle. She is now head cook for the big Russell ranch and she cooks as well as she shoots. She has led her kicking, 12-gauge shotgun like a veteran in the sportsman and got many of the 5,000 rabbits killed during the drive, in which hundreds of citizens took part. The rabbit drive is an annual event to keep the rabbits from getting so numerous that they threaten the crops.

For two nights, starting tomorrow night with a matinee Saturday, The Eastland Theatre will offer Al Christie's 6 act comedy drama "So Long Letty," from the famous Oliver Morosco stage farce, a 102.75 proof comedy that puts the kick in the chaser.

Fat, good-natured Tommy Robbins was one of those model husbands that the newspaper photographers poke fun at. You know the type, Harry Miller, his next-door neighbor, was Tommy's exact opposite.

Tommy and Harry had one thing in common, however--they both had wives. Tommy's was a pippin, a dashing blonde who dressed so that all of the many curves of her perfect thirty-six showed to advantage. Mrs. Miller was a cute little trick who cared naught for clothes but loved her home and kitchen.

Then came the big smash. Tommy thought he couldn't live another minute without Mrs. Miller's cooking and Harry believed he wouldn't last out the hour if he couldn't "step out" with Mrs. Robbins. They talked it over calmly. Divorce was the only solution, but not until they had swapped wives for a week! Did the plan work?

Tree Marvelously Preserved.
 Discovery has been made in the Holman iron mine near Taconite, Minn., not far from the source of the Mississippi river, of the trunk and branches of a prehistoric tree in an excellent state of preservation, with the cones on it. The tree is not petrified and the wood is perfectly sound.

What's the Answer?
 Fifty years ago two-thirds of all Americans lived on farms. Today but one-third lives in the country. How do you explain it when every year life on the farm grows easier and every year it becomes harder in the city?

The Boy's Net.
 A boy's mate was in charge of a bunch of men hoisting and lowering a boat from the water to the deck. It was seen it would be necessary to have a block of wood put under the boat to make it set up even. The boy's mate yelled: "Put a block under the boat! Use your head!" Judge.

NERVE-SPEED WHEN NEEDED

Lack of Nervous Force Cause of Most Failures in the Daily Affairs of Life

Not Exactly This But Near It Is the Too Often Experience of Many Men. A hundred people describing their weary condition would each tell it differently. One can't think, another is drowsy, the next feels weak, others are irritable, moody, depressed, apprehensive, as the case may be. To this great class of sufferers comes Reolo, one of the grandest reconstructive agencies ever devised for definite accomplishment. It intensifies the activity of the vital processes, provokes increased flesh stimulus, the production of new corpuscles, contributes to the defense of the system against depletion and consequent exhaustion, and in many other ways, arouses the functional processes to make you feel that something has touched that one flickering vital spark you thought was about to go out. No amount of description can adequately convey the difference between the feeling of lack of nerve speed and the rebound, the freedom, the liberation from depression that cause so many men and women to fall in their tracks, to go to sleep at the switch or stand still when the order is to go ahead with your real self, get a $3.00 box of Reolo today. Ask any of the dealers or the Fisher & Stretch Pharmacy or any other leading drug store.

Two Jugular Veins.
 There are two jugular veins on each side of the neck. The external jugular veins are just beneath the skin and convey the blood from the external portions of the head and neck to the heart, while the internal jugular veins carry the blood from the lateral sinus to the heart.

Kerosene and Coal.
 Kerosene stoves are heating one way and coal when considered on a weight basis, a pound of kerosene contains about 15,000 heat units, whereas a pound of high-grade coal contains about 13,000. The cost of the various fuels for heating purposes depends largely upon the relative supply.

Good Always at Hand.
 If we will take the good we find, asking no questions, we shall have healing measures. Everything good is on the highway.--Emerson.

In Every Town.
 Most every town has three or four rich men who are worth a couple hundred dollars above their liabilities.--Deacon Walker.

Agostini's Creed.
 The origin of the Apostle's Creed is not fully determined. It is supposed to have been taken from the confession of Peter (Mark 16:16) and from the baptismal invocation which determined the trinitarian order and arrangement. The earliest mention of the Apostle's Creed is found in the works of St. Irenaeus against hereafter. He died in 202 A. D., when about 90 years old.

May Hold Fight In Canada

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Withdrawal of two of the promoters of the $200,000 championship heavy-weight boxing bout between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier will not deter the third promoter, Tex Rickard, from staging the contest, he said today. The indicated he would immediately procure other promoters to take the places of William A. Brady and Charles J. Cochran and attempt to hold the fight in Canada.

After a day of denials that the proposed bout had been called off because of the alleged failure of post-forefights, Brady announced last night that so far as he was concerned he was through, because the contracts have not been mutually observed. He also said he was fully authorized to announce the formal withdrawal of Cochran, who is in England.

Brady's statement threw a bombshell into the boxing world. Close followers of the sport here generally agreed that the breaking up of the triumvirate of promoters presaged virtual abandonment of the plan to hold the contest in the United States. Rickard was reported to be in favor of staging the fight in Montreal on July 2. Cochran's reported offer to hold the fight in London was given serious consideration by many enthusiasts.

Killifer Enthusiastic Over Cubs' Prospects For This Year

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Bill Killifer, veteran catcher of the Chicago Cubs, expressed his enthusiasm today over the team's prospects for the next season, after studying his 1921 contract. "It doesn't look like we are going to make a trade that will help us," Killifer said, "but even if we don't I think the Cubs will be in the thick of the fight for the next season. I can't stick to one team all the time, and we have had our share of it."

Killifer was among those injured near the end of the last season, a broken finger preventing his playing in the final games.

McGraw Still After Groh

Manager John McGraw of the New York Giants is not satisfied with his infield and probably won't be until he lands one more high-class performer. Right now he is angling for "Tennie" Groh of the Cincinnati Reds and has made an attractive cash offer for the tied third-sacker, who is said to be dissatisfied with his present berth. There is some talk of a four-cornered trade between Cincinnati, New York, Boston and Pittsburgh.

Maranville, Snyder, Whitford and Groh are said to figure in the proposed deal.

A LITTLE THAT HELPS

SCORE first "horse" for Governor Davis.
 He has been in office for about two weeks and makes a fair beginning towards keeping his pledge of economy of administration by discharging forty deputy oil inspectors, all in one day, and, a thing not to be overlooked, abrogating their jobs at the same time. Further than that, according to supposition, he will also abrogate the bureau of state oil inspection entirely, transferring its function to some department, where there is both ample and surfeit of deputy inspectors.

Let it be said the new executive begins the right way at the right place. There are too many minions and too many bureaus and departments, overlapping and stepping on each others' heels.

With indignation does this faithful champion of the taxpayer recall a week when it had four inspectors from various state commissions and what not snoopers around its premises and making various orders and suggestions, some directly contradictory.

Practically their alleged duties were the same, which raises the question: If one state department gives no credit to another, how can any of them expect any respect from the public and of what efficacy are they?

Take our experience for illumination. The first fellow that came in said he was from the inspection bureau and he seemed alone concerned about a boiler, used solely for heating purposes. Then next there was another who hailed from the workshop division and he was anxious about fire escapes particularly. Scarcely had he gone when a third came from sort of insurance division and his concern was about fire extinguishers. Finally there mingled in a female with terribly fetching smile, or at least one we had a horrible suspicion, that it was specially manufactured for that purpose. What she came for we neither knew nor wanted by that time to know, but she was a "fawfully" eager to know if we had any girl employees and what provision we were making for them.

Any one inspector could, in half hour, have seen all the four saw and got all the information the individual details departed with.

Let Governor Davis keep up his good work of firing and abrogating, meanwhile keeping a sharp lookout that the legislature isn't creating more jobs and more departments.

Maybe we don't know when we are blessed of the gods. Here we grumble at 35 cent gas, but in Cadiz they pay 55 cents for the same thing.

What's this? Warren Gamaliel, who was to be our plainest president of the plain people, traveling all the way to Cleveland incognito, according to the Marion chronicler. Some people don't know what incognito means, but it is the manner in which princes, kings and potentates travel when they do not wish the common herd to know they are at large.

Let no one say that John Rockefeller has not used his three billion dollars without purpose. One of the institutions he has founded warns the public that if it fries an egg on one side it should fry it on the other, as if this be not done, so many bacteria takes refuge on the unfried side as to make the egg a monster of frightful men to the eater. Which makes us not only wonder why so many eggs are served "sunny side up", but more why the price is always soaring.

There was a time when many a man prided himself on being able to tell when a woman was well dressed.

The thing that makes them more numerous is that a lot of joy rides end up without disaster.

Men used to burn the midnight oil to get ahead; now the oil is used to lubricate automobiles.

A baldheaded man does not even have the satisfaction of saving any money at the barber shop.

The august supreme tribunal of the country has decided, that if you lend your automobile to a friend to Ironton to the bedside of a dying relative and he brings back with him a jug of moonshine your car can be confiscated by the government for engaging in illegal liquor traffic. A mere showing of how far the much consecrated law can get away from right and justice.

The laws of the celestial universe seem to be about the only ones the crooks are not able to violate.

CITY RUBES

By Frederic J. Haskin

NEW YORK, January 20.—The idea, usually so popular with city people, that all rubes live in the country, seems to lack force in New York this season. Too many people are being cleverly separated from their small change. For in the wake of the crime wave has come an epidemic of petty graft, to which the shrewd, sophisticated New Yorker has succumbed as easily as he did to last year's flu, showing himself to be quite as gullible as his rural relatives.

Hardened shop-keepers of long city training have been buying fake furs and paste jewels with a reckless good nature that would astonish even a suburban and thousands of canny Broadway residents have been contributing to fake causes with a sentimental abandon rarely exhibited by the citizens of small towns. In spite of all the talk about money being tight, beggars and fraud specialists are having a nice time in New York this year than they have ever had before.

Here is the sort of thing which is constantly happening to enliven the atmosphere along Broadway and Fifth Avenue.

The other night, a friend of the reporter, a shrewd young business man in Wall Street, was on his way home when he was accosted by a well-dressed, well-built "stranger" who stretched forth a gloved hand in delighted recognition.

"I don't suppose you remember me," said the unknown one, with an admirable mixture of cordiality and reserve. "But I have seen you so often on the street. I'm employed in the next office building, you know. Here in New York we don't speak to people so readily as we do in my home town, but I've often wanted to. Well, I'm awfully lucky to run into you now, for you're in need of help. Just had an accident and had to haul my car into a garage about three blocks from here, and now I find I'm just five dollars short on the repair bill. Worst of it is I promised to meet my wife at the station this afternoon. She'll be loaded down with Christmas junk and won't have a cent left. As soon as I caught sight of you, though, it occurred to me that you might be able to help me out."

A New Touch
 At this point, the stranger drew forth his wallet and disclosed a fat roll of small bills.

"I've got fifty-three dollars here," he smiled broadly, "but the repair bill is fifty-eight." Then, with engaging frankness: "I am going to ask you if you can let me have the extra five until tomorrow morning. I can run right over to your office from mine in a few minutes and hand it back to you."

"That's all right," interrupted our friend uneasily, but agreeably, taking a live spot from his much smaller roll of bills. "Glad to let you have it. I may need some help myself some time."

And that was the end of the incident—except that the cordial stranger has never been seen since, and inquiry in the next office building revealed no information concerning him. But a few days later, the morning papers warned their readers about this particular form of "touch."

It is extraordinary to what lengths the small fraud artist will go to obtain a year. As a matter of fact, it has always suffered more than any other city in the United States from this evil. In a way, New Yorkers have become accustomed to it, as they have to other metropolitan inconveniences. There are the slot machines on the elevated and subway stations, for example. A slot machine is an innocent apparatus in itself, and is a great boon to a gum-chewing public, but the slot machines of these stations are graveyards of ruined hopes. They are supposed to contain chewing gum, and occasionally they do, but, how often they don't. Yet never are they empty of nickels and pennies thrust in by trustful persons who sigh and swear and miss their trains in an effort to get something out.

But perhaps the most suspicious establishments in New York are the hat-checking parlors, where surprising frauds of one kind and another are always coming to light. Most astonishing of these was one discovered recently made when a couple of hat check boys got into a fight. When the guests rushed into the check room and succeeded in separating principals they found that the cause of the hostilities was a spool of white thread.

Try degrees, the story came out. It seems that when a slinky dancer or dinner refuses to tip for an unnecessary brushing off, he is permitted to get just as far as the door. Then a boy politely requests him to stop, rushing up to the guest's back, the boy begins to brush off a cluster of white ravelings, conveying at the same time his keen distress that such a well-dressed gentleman should be so careless. This is where the white spool of thread comes in, and also its immediate result—a dime. Always a dime, and sometimes, if the guest is much embarrassed, a quarter.

Thus, don't be too impressed when you hear about the sagacious invulnerability of the New Yorker. Live here for a few months yourself, and you will find him out.

NEW YORK, January 20.—The Fiji Island influence is now being felt in the Bobbed Hair Circles. The girl with bobbed hair goes to the hair dresser to have her hair frizzed up so it will stand out like that of a Fiji Island belle. It is not the thing to have it gracefully curled so that it will nestle in graceful lines against her head.

Bobbed hair must be wild and as ferocious looking as a porcupine's back. If you have seen Eva Tangui in one of her most reckless moments you get the idea. Many months ago the short hair had leaped from the scene of its humble origin in the attics of Washington Square and spread northward to the perfumed parlors of the fashionable East Side.

As an illustration of its acceptance among debutantes, whose papas and mamas are really in the social register, a theatre party during the holiday week revealed that out of 100 society girls, 74 had bobbed heads. When Mrs. Vernon Castle recovered from her and had to have her locks shorn, she little realized what she was starting.

A musical comedy chorus is behind the bolded head is not always required to young heads. Young married women and even the middle aged are resorting to it. Of course for "sanitary reasons" and not because it is a fad or gives a youthful look.

Safety First
 Corporal Sweeney had been detailed to take his squad of engineers to mop up after a company of infantry. Arrived at the cellar of an abandoned mansion he was instructed by his lieutenant to go inside, leaving the remainder of the squad gathered outside the door to get the fugitives.

"Yes, sir," answered Sweeney, obediently. Then turning to his men, he added the caution: "But if more than one man comes out of that cellar, for the Lord's sake, don't shoot the first one."—The American Legion Weekly.

Musical Breakfast
 "What do you suppose has come over my husband this morning," Sophia? exclaimed a conscientious little bride to the new servant. "I never saw him start down town so happy. He's whistling like a bird."

"I'm to blame, mum. I got the packages mixed this morning, and instead of giving him oatmeal I cooked the bird seed."—Disston Crucible.

A Change of Tune
 Quite a large number of young men who were loudly singing a few months ago, "How 'Ya Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm?" can be heard now in the mournful chant, "How We Gonna Stay in Town and Eat?"—Detroit Journal.

The Iron Hand
 "Of course there is no such thing as woman's supremacy."
 "Think not? From the time a boy sits under a street light playing with beads until he is blind and old and toothless he has to explain to some woman why he didn't come home earlier."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

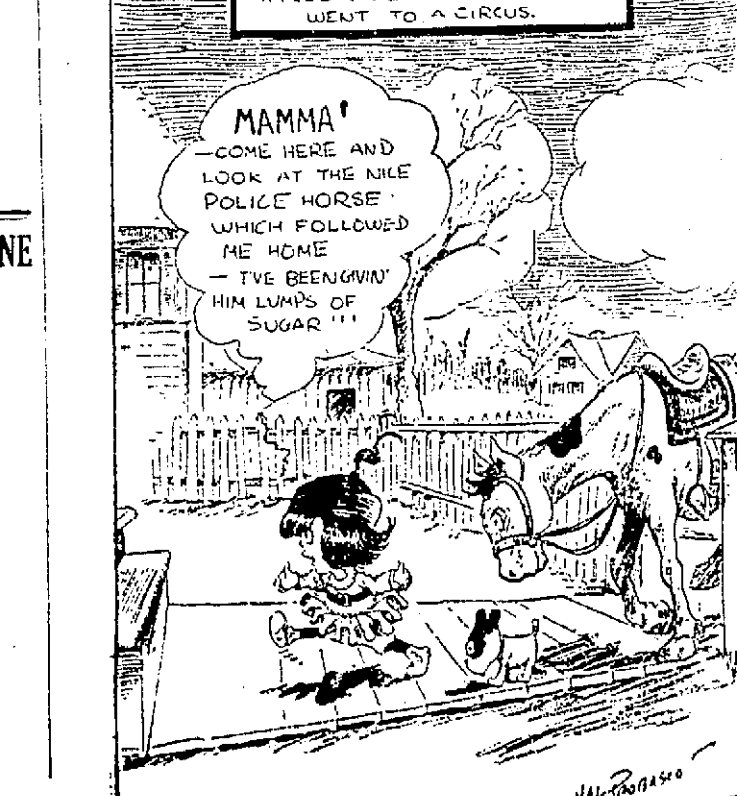

The Serious Time
 Brenda: "Freddie is thinking very seriously about marriage."
 Billy: "Ah. How long has he been married?"—The Bulletin (Sydney).

Logical
 "You are always behind in your studies."
 "Well, you see, sir, it gives me a chance to pursue them."—Collegiate World.

Too Cruel
 "After all," asks a writer, "why shouldn't Ireland have a Parliament, like England?" Quite frankly we do not like this idea of retaliation while more humane methods are still unexplored.—Lunch (London).

Careless of Him
 Mother: "Poor Jimmy is so unfortunate."
 Father: "How's that?"
 Mother: "During the track meet he broke one of the best records they had in college."—Tar Baby.
